1QFY26 Results Review Lifted by Stronger Tariffs

Maintain NEUTRAL. We maintain our NEUTRAL call on Ranhill Utilities with a higher sum-of-the-parts derived TP of RM1.91 after upgrading our earnings estimates following a stronger performance from Ranhill SAJ, benefitting from the recent tariff revision starting Aug-25 that was gazetted by the Cabinet. We expect Ranhill SAJ to continue contributing strongly to the group's earnings moving forward, attributable due to the growth of data centres in Johor and the upcoming economic growth prospects from the Johor-Singapore SEZ and Special Financial Zone. As for the power segment, Ranhill is exploring opportunities in the Corporate Renewable Energy Supply Scheme (CRESS) and also submitted a bid to the Energy Commission for the development of a 100MW/400MWh battery energy storage system (BESS) in Jul-25.

Above expectations. Ranhill posted a core net profit of RM30.2m in 1QFY26, coming in above expectations at 41.8% of our full-year estimates on the back of a stronger performance by Ranhill SAJ. While there is no comparable quarter due to the recent change in financial year end from Dec to Jun, the comparison with 3QFY25 ending Sep-24 showed a growth in bottom line by +28.0%yoy.

Key takeaways. Despite a lower revenue during the quarter by -6.2%yoy to RM589.0m, the improvement in the group's core earnings came mainly from the water division under Ranhill SAJ. It was the only business that posted an improvement in earnings, with a +48.7%yoy growth in PBT to RM43.5m. Margins improved to 10.5% from 8.4% in the same quarter a year ago, as a result of the recent tariff adjustment. The power segment posted a PBT of RM2.1m (-48.4%yoy), on the back of a weaker revenue of RM61.9m (-39.9%yoy), coming mainly from capacity and energy payment revenues from Ranhill Sabah Energy 1 (RM28.7m) and Ranhill Sabah Energy II (RM32.6m). Meanwhile, the consultancy and services division recorded a lower PBT of RM6.7m (-72.6%yoy), contributed mainly by Ranhill Technologies (RM6.0m). In a briefing by parent company YTL yesterday, management expects the Ranhill performance to be more stable moving forward, dependent on Ranhill SAJ.

Earnings revision. We are revising our earnings estimates for FY26E/FY27F higher by +34.2%/+56.8% to RM97.0m/RM125.6m on the back of a stronger performance by Ranhill SAJ, backed by the recent tariff adjustment starting Aug-25, that was gazetted by the Cabinet. While domestic users are largely unaffected, the largest increase was for the non-domestic consumer segment while data centres will be charged a specific rate. Refer to Table 1 for more details.
